TERMS AND CONDITIONS

(Please read these Terms and Conditions carefully)

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The following terms and conditions apply. By entering the competition offered by Murdoch University, entrants accept these terms and conditions.

1. Entry in the competition is limited to West Australian high school students enrolled in Year 10 or Year 11 for the 2019 academic year.
2. A competitor may submit a maximum of 1 entry per category.
3. All entries must be submitted by email to mesh@murdoch.edu.au before 8pm on Friday, 18 October 2019. All entries must be accompanied by a completed and signed entry application form which can be downloaded from the Mesh at Murdoch Awards website <http://meshatmurdoch.com/MuSpace/mesh-at-murdoch-awards>.
4. All applications forms must be accompanied by two signed endorsements for the entry to be eligible. The forms must be signed by both: 1) the entrant's parent or guardian; and 2) a teacher or official representative of the entrant's high school.
5. Each submission entered must be in the name of one person only. Should the entry win, this designated person will be awarded the relevant prize, and may be contacted regarding publicity.
6. Entries must have been created between 1 January 2019 and 18 October 2019
7. All submissions must not include another person's copyright material. An entry containing work that is in breach of copyright law will render that entry void.
8. All submissions must represent the work of those referred to in clause above.
9. Entrants may submit multiple versions of a single entry provided that any subsequent version is submitted prior to 8pm, 18 October 2019. The last version to be submitted and received before the closure date is the version Murdoch University will judge. No subsequent versions will be accepted after the competition close date.
10. Murdoch University reserves the right to redesignate entries it believes have been improperly placed in a category, to a more appropriate one.

11. Murdoch University may use any film submitted for entry (or an excerpt thereof) for teaching purposes and to promote the competition to the public by whatever means it sees fit. This includes online, print and multimedia. Murdoch University retains this right indefinitely despite the film having been entered into additional competitions.
12. The Golden Mesh winner MUST be willing to participate in promotional activity arranged by Murdoch University. Entry in the competition is deemed as accepting this obligation.
13. All decisions of Murdoch University and its judges are final.
14. All prizes are non-transferable or redeemable for cash.
15. Category winners will be notified by email and/or phone on Monday, 11 November, 2019
16. The winner of the Golden Mesh Award will be announced at the Murdoch Media Showcase Evening in early December 2019.
17. You must agree to these terms and conditions when submitting an entry.

CATEGORY DETAILS

Best Short Dramatic Film:

Produce a dramatic fictional film in any style or genre. Films should be no longer than 5 minutes, must deserve less than an 'M' rating, and must not use copyright material. Submissions will be judged on: Originality and creativity; Clarity and strength of idea and script; Visual creativity, and good execution in terms of performance, camera, sound and editing.

Best Persuasive Essay:

Write a 500 word persuasive speech on a topic of your choice. The aim is to convey a convincing argument and to persuade your audience to consider your point-of-view. Topics should be drawn from Australian or international politics and social issues, entertainment and sport, education or activism and advocacy. Submissions will be judged on: Demonstrates understanding of speech format (writing for the ear); Demonstrates ability to articulate a clear and cohesive argument; Demonstrates originality of thought and evidence of research; Demonstrates understanding of the intended audience.

Best Video Game Character Concept:

Produce a poster-size game character concept design containing one or more images of your character and text to illuminate their back story. Via visual and/or textual indications of pose, clothing, equipment, and accessories, convey your character's personality, culture, and capabilities. Characters need not be human, maximum poster image dimensions: 2048x1024px, jpg format. Submissions will be judged on: Originality and creativity of ideas; Clear, distinctive execution; Suitability of character elements in overall design; Attention to detail.

Best Magazine Cover Design:

Create a magazine cover of your own design for your favourite media genre such as TV, movies, comic books, zines, blogs, web shows, pod casts, etc. Your self published magazine cover design should include standard publication requirements such as a title, issue subtitle, captions for what's inside, bar code and price. The cover design should incorporate only original work such as photographs that only you have taken or illustrations that only you have drawn. Submissions will be judged on visual creativity, originality, typography and attention to detail. Submit your project as a PDF document.

Best Music Production:

Create a music production 3-5 minutes in length that you have composed, performed and produced. It can be made using acoustic sources, for example, voices and piano, electronic sources such as computer music technology, or a combination of both. Submissions will be judged on: Technical production quality; Effectiveness of the arrangement; Musicality; Emotional strength; Creativity.

Best Recorded Interview:

Record a 3-5 minute interview you have conducted as the reporter with an interviewee. You will have crafted the questions, the angle of the interview, recorded the sound effects and produced the final edit. You may submit an audio-recorded OR filmed interview, but the overarching focus of entries should be defined by sound quality. Submissions will be judged on: Overall sound quality; Coherent storyline; Choice of talent; Use of sound effects; Quality of editing.

Best Photographic Series:

Produce a series of 5-10 Photographs linked by theme and style. Editing is permitted. Submissions will be judged on: Composition; Use of light; Technical skill; Imagination.

Best Dramatic Monologue to Camera:

Perform a 2 minute monologue to camera without props. Monologue can be original or from existing dramatic text. Submissions will be judged on: Understanding of the language and the character selected; vocal clarity; Understanding of the character's presence through movement and other dramatic techniques pertinent to the role.

Best Online News Story:

Produce a news story – either written, video or interview style. The story needs to focus on a real event, person or thing. The final product should not take more than two minutes to be listened to, read, or viewed. Submissions will be judged on how succinctly the story has been constructed and how well any additional multimedia is crafted.

Best Short Story:

Write an original 1500 word short story in any style or genre. The story must be previously unpublished, and not entered into any other competition. Submissions will be judged on: demonstration of understanding of the short story form; demonstration of originality; flair and fluency in style and technique; reader engagement.
